Yes, I can do that. I'll need a few days but will let you know when it's done.

Scott, do you have time to verify that everything we have received from both CFAC and ARCO in terms of 104(e) responses have made it to the records center? Mark

I know that the original hard copy response from CFAC that arrived in multiple boxes was sent to the records center. I have had the subsequent responses and disks from both CFAC and ARCO sent to you to be forwarded to the records center but haven't confirmed that they are there.

Scott,

Do you know if the 104(e) requests and responses—including disks w/ responsive documents—were ever sent to the records center?

Mark
